Student Learning Outcomes

College of Liberal Arts
B.A. in International Studies

1. The program will prepare students for careers in foreign service, in non-governmental and governmental agencies, and in international corporations.

2. Students will be familiar with the contents and methods of global studies, including world economics; international politics and governance; physical interrelatedness of the global regions and their cultural and social issues; global history; and social science methodology.

3. Students will master a second language.

4. Students will obtain specialized knowledge in one of nine distinct fields within international studies, including - Asian Studies; Africana Studies; Latin American & Caribbean Studies; European Studies; Diplomacy & International Organizations; Ethnicity, Nationalism, & Migration; Peace & Justice Studies; Environmental Issues & Policy; or the International Business Track.