Student Learning Outcomes

College of Liberal Arts
B.A. in Sociology

1. Students will learn the basic theoretical and methodological paradigms in sociology and how they are applied in various substantive areas of the discipline.

2. Students will learn concrete skills related to community and social service activities.

3. Students will learn how to design and execute their own sociological research projects.

4. Students will learn analytical skills necessary to critically evaluate and analyze scholarly and policy oriented research reports.

5. Students will learn knowledge and skills necessary to pursue advanced degrees in sociology and related professional fields.