Student Learning Outcomes

College of Business Administration
B.S. in Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism

1. Students will understand industry expectations for employees of the hospitality and tourism.

2. Students will receive training to improve presentation skills.

3. Students will demonstrate the effective use of computers and information technology.

4. The School of HRT will provide students with skills and competencies that prepare them for a career in the hospitality and tourism industry.