Student Learning Outcomes

College of Business Administration
B.S. in Management

1. Students will learn to apply management concepts effectively and to integrate knowledge from other business disciplines in their management decision making.

2. Students will learn to apply management concepts effectively in real situations.

3. Students will learn effective management and leadership skills.