Student Learning Outcomes

College of Engineering
M.S. in Engineering

1. Application of mathematics, science, and engineering to solve significant engineering problems.

2. Professional development and enhancement of technical communications.

3. M.S. graduates will qualify for above-entry-level jobs in industry or in continuing their graduate education at the PhD level.