Student Learning Outcomes

College of Education and Human Development
Ph.D. in Curriculum and Instruction

The student completing the Ph. D. in Curriculum and Instruction will demonstrate the following:

1. Understanding of the development and use multiple types of educational research by receiving a compiled grade of 3.5 in 18-hour research sequence.

2. Understanding (and write about) content knowledge in area of concentration by passing the General Examination approved by a majority of graduate faculty serving on the student’s committee.

3. Ability to design and conduct effective academic research by completing the program a dissertation approved by majority of graduate faculty serving on the student’s committee.