Student Learning Outcomes

College of Education and Human Development
B.S. in Secondary Education

The student completing the M. A. T. in Curriculum and Instruction will demonstrate the following:

1. Content knowledge by passing the appropriate Praxis for certification prior to completion of student teaching.

2. Appropriate dispositions for teaching by scoring at “satisfactory” or above on the dispositions rubric.

3. Appropriate instructional performance (ability to design, implement and evaluate effective curriculum and instruction) by scoring “acceptable” or better on the Teacher Work Sample.