College of Liberal Arts

B.S. in Urban Studies and Planning

1. Students will understand the environmental, economic and social processes that have shaped urbanization in and beyond the United States

2. Students will be able to read, understand and apply primary and secondary sources from across urban studies and planning

3. Students will develop a professional interest by pursuing a concentration in planning, transportation or geography

4. Students will develop professional skills necessary to operate in public, private and nonprofit organizations